November 2016 Newsletter

Squirrels, Turkeys & Corn

In November we will have activities & lessons based around corn, squirrels, turkeys and other woodland animals. We will taste & make foods made from corn. We will scamper like a squirrel and count turkey feathers. Our bible lessons will be on being thankful.

On November 23 we will have a special lunch at snack time including deli sliced turkey, cranberry sauce, homemade butter, veggies and other tasty things. A separate snack list will be sent home. Join us at 11:50 in the classrooms as we end our day with a few songs.

We will not have school on Monday, November 28th.

Join us for a few songs at 11:50am in the classroom

Classroom communication- staying informed

Communication is important between preschool and families. Here at CHCP we have a few ways for you to know what is going on.

Email- weekly updates usually go out every Wednesday.

If you are not receiving an email please email a note and I will add you to our groups- DOJO is a quick glimpse into our classroom activities via smartphone and computer. If you have not signed up you are missing out on some cute pictures and info. Everyone has their own sign in code- Please contact your teachers to get your code.

Remind is a classroom notification via text message. These short texts will include school snow cancellations & school event reminders.

Be sure to check out our Facebook Page & like us- Crafton Heights Community Preschool.

Last way- READ YOUR NEWSLETTERS!

Dress in layers

Hot, Cold... Who knows!

The temperature in the classrooms changes through out the morning. It is always best to dress your child in layers so that he/she can adjust clothing to stay comfortable. A t-shirt under a sweatshirt or long sleeve shirt is always the best option. Hoodies are never needed

Dismissal Procedures

For preschool pick-up, families should wait on the 3rd floor in the big room. There you can check your child's basket for artwork and papers. We will have all parents line up when it's time to dismiss the children.

To cut down on stairway congestion, Please use the back stairs if you arrive when families are coming down the steps.
